

60001391802.txt

The merger of cable networks should not be approved unless there is a requirement that independent news sources carried by any of the merged companies are required to be carried by the surviving merged company. This is currently an issue regarding the Time-Warner and Charter Communications. I ask that either the merger be disapproved or only approved on condition that independent news services currently carried by either of them will be required to continue to be carried indefinitely.