

60001394540.txt

It seems to me that the losers of any merger that limits competition is the American Public. I am against any suppression of free speech. This includes the exclusion of One America News from the available news channels of certain cable providers. I find it ironic that a channel that stands for all the liberties guaranteed by the Constitution is subject to omission in the cable lineup while the Al Jazeera channel that is owned by a foreign monarchy, flourishes.