

60001396579.txt

Under the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Part 73 of Title 47, the broadcasting rights of One American News (OAN) must be recognized by private cable networks as a public viewing service. Further, OAN is deemed a valued community asset to all public viewing audiences by providing an importance reporting service on national and world news.