

60001399375.txt

I really enjoy One American News and do not understand why some cable networks will not carry it. If it is for political reasons then that cable network does not believe in freedom of speech which any cable network should respect freedom of the press even if they do not agree with other political beliefs from news organizations that have different political agenda then theirs.