

60001400516.txt

Independent news reporting is essential for a free society. It helps keep all viewpoints before the public and therefore a better and more informed listening public.