

60001402670.txt

I'm furious that I can't get One America News anywhere except on the internet. These giant cable companies are out of control with their prices and are holding us all hostage just so we can access local and national news. I can get almost everything else I want cheaper from another source. Don't let them become even more powerful.