

60001408614.txt

I happened across One America at a cafe in Anchorage. I was amazed to find a central, sensible news source without out all the hype and political sensationalism. It was wonderful. America needs this. Please force our carriers to include this service for at least a year. THIS YEAR and then let the market dictate it's future.