

I support equal telecommunication access for all people! Everyone should have the right to communicate with their loved ones. Think of all of the innocent children who have loved ones in jail and cannot communicate with them through no fault of their own. Thank you for your consideration!