

The services AT&T provides assists the 911 community. These services are not used very often, only in cases of extreme emergencies. Eliminating these services could possibly delay critical response by law enforcement and emergency medical first responders that could possibly save lives. I would object to these changes on behalf of the Downriver Mutual Aid 911 district.