

60001415211.txt

Independent programming networks such as OANN deserved to be made available through all cable carriers for another choice in world news. News and information should not be limited to only a few cable sources that are opinion heavy and lacking content. I support OANN and have ordered their news a-la-carte through Roku since I am unable to get them on my local cable carrier. OANN should be granted access to mainstream cable carriers. Most importantly, OANN is patriotic.