

60001416885.txt

I support One America News Network. Independent news networks are vital resource for readers that want individual point of view. Mega mergers squeeze out independent thinkers and limit the important alternative view points. Americans should be able to view news from any source they choose.