

60001424327.txt

Freedom of Information is an essential part of Freedom of Speech. If the other cable networks have such of strangle hold on US communications, they should not be afraid of dissenting voices. Some rich people have the economic security to allow truth be told and not desire for power or mastery of the masses. That is called philanthropy: a very American value.