

60001426508.txt

Mega-mergers of cable networks should not be used to push out independent channels. Many people rely on these channels for news that is not tainted with bias as happens too often with the Mainstream News Media channels. Please assure that any such mergers protects the rights of independent news channels from unfair pricing and other schemes that pushes them out.