RE: Structure and Practices of the Video Relay Service Program, CG Docket No. 10-51; Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech-to-Speech Services for Individuals with Hearing and Speech Disabilities, CG Docket No. 03-123; ASL Services Holdings, LLC Objection to Release of Confidential Information and Notice of Ex Parte

Dear Secretary Dortch:

ASL Services Holdings, LLC dba GlobalVRS (“ASL/Global VRS”) hereby withdraws its objection to release of confidential documents sought under Acknowledgements of Confidentiality filed under the *Protective Order*¹ and *Second Protective Order*² by counsel for Purple Communications, Inc., CSDVRS, LLC dba ZVRS, and Sorenson Communications, LLC in the above referenced matter.³

ASL/Global VRS’s withdrawal of its objections to release of confidential information should in no way be interpreted as a change in the Company’s underlying belief that release of confidential information is entirely unjustified in this instance and wrong. If anything, the necessity for ASL/GlobalVRS’ withdrawal of its objection underscores the significant market power and control exerted by the dominant, incumbent providers over the TRS program and need for further Commission reforms to bring about true competitive choice.

¹ See Structure and Practices of the Video Relay Service Program, Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech-to-Speech Services for Individuals with Hearing and Speech Disabilities, Protective Order, CG Docket Nos. 03-123 and 10-51 (March 14, 2012).

² Id., Second Protective Order (May 31, 2012).

³ See ASL Services Holdings, LLC Letter to Marlene Dortch, regarding objections to release of confidential documents, CG Docket Nos. 03-123 and 10-51 (February 5, 2016).
