

60001515766.txt

We need to fight to keep RFD TV and all independent channels. We watch this channel everyday. It is so hard to find a good family channel to watch now on TV. We need to start speaking out like all the other people do when they want something changed. As a Christian I will stand for this for it is a great and wonderful channel with family shows and news. Stop trying to force us into something that we do not want.