

60001518073.txt

While on the surface this looks like a reasonable suggestion, It is my belief that in the long term this will lead to the stagnation and failure of amatuer radio as a service.

An amatuer radio license is a priveledge and a responsibility, and if an amatuer radio operator is too lazy to update his license every 10 years then maybe he shoul dn' t have it.