

60001518280.txt

I vote for lifetime issued license. Makes it easier on everyone. I know of some of the older amateur radio operators that are not computer savvy allowing their licenses to lapse simply because they can not figure out how to renew via the ULS website. So rather than to loose good operators take the hassle out of having to renew with lifetime issuance! Great idea!