

60001520364.txt

Since I am among millions of people in this country who get our world and national news from the web I would hope that the FCC will carefully weigh Charter Communications past history of bankruptcy in its decision-making process. I also would like for companies like One America News Network which is a welcome change to the other news agencies will get protection from being forced out by the big mega agencies.
Thank you