

60001521132.txt

I have my TV coverage through Blue Ridge Cable TV who presently carries RFD-TV. I am concerned that they might also in the future drop RFD-TV, in which case I would miss this coverage, especially the country music shows that are no longer broadcast on other channels for the most part. Also, they should not be moved to premium channels and make them unaffordable.