

60001522644.txt

Rural programming is essential to all Americans especially urban residents. It may be the only truthful educational tool to inform them of the true values and practices of production agriculture.