

60001523352.txt

I watch RFD TV on Dish and want to lend my support for this type of programming. We need to keep a balance of types of lifestyles represented by the current providers of information and programming. I don't see any willingness to drop BET or any religious programming carried by the Dish network... and I don't see any reason to drop RFDTV because it represents the rural lifestyle.