

60001523451.txt

I watch RFD-TV, this is the only channel available to me for Agriculture market trends, Ag related weather and the Horse and Rodeo related programs that are available to me without having to spend more money each month than I want just to get this type of programming. I feel this type programming is vital to the rural family.