

60001523839.txt

I watch RFD TV from the Direct TV provider. This is one of the few truly family friendly stations that are left. We enjoy the horse training and ranching shows. I wish there were more independent channels out there that we could bundle ourselves into a custom viewing package. Instead, I have to be constantly vigilant that our children are not exposed to the sex and killing that seems to be everywhere at any time.