

FCC Case 16-42

I concur with the proposal to eliminate mandatory cable box rentals from cable service providers. These boxes do not provide benefit to the consumer but are required by the cable companies at significant lifetime cost to the consumer. Customer choice for obtaining our own boxes would save money with no adverse impact to service.