

60001524401.txt

Comcast has been overcharging the public for the use of tv set top box connection for too long. Comcast is using the public's utility poles to move their lines to our homes and should be held to the public service regulations as phone companies in the past. Further the public should be allowed to buy and install their own boxes without paying Comcast any extra exorbitant fees.