

60001524885.txt

RFD tv is on constantly in our house. We watch the Market Report daily, as well as the equine training shows. We tape shows daily so we can watch them after work. After we have watched the taped shows, we then watch the different evening equine shows .

We have enjoyed the American, which is fabulous and we have watched the Town Hall shows with the candidates, which has allowed us to see the candidates in a different setting. These have been great as well.