

60001525490.txt

I strongly support allowing cable TV customers to acquire and provide their own "cable box" equipment. It is time to end the monopoly that cable TV providers have in providing this equipment. I expect that once this rule takes effect that many new equipment options and functions will become available.