

60001525884.txt

RFD TV makes up approximately 50% of my television viewing. As a rural American the shows and information found on this channel are both educational and entertaining and are found on no other network. I truly enjoy this network and would drop my TV provider if it were not offered. This is a channel you can watch with your mother, no profanity, no embarrassing shows or commercials.