

60001527465.txt

I watch RFD TV on Direct TV. Please keep this channel on the air. This channel is very important to the rural american. One of the few channels that is family friendly. So many people that live in large metropolitan areas have no idea of where there food comes from.