

60001527525.txt

I am asking you to protect independent programmers such as RFD-TV. In recent months RFD-TV was taken off the basic cable package from Knology and moved into a more expensive tier. I believe this program provides valuable information that all individuals would benefit from, not just ones that have the most expensive cable package. Please consider making this available to all people. I appreciate your consideration.