

60001527724.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Dish network. It has essential information that is not carried on other networks. Please do not let the big cable providers remove this network from their service or put it into their more expensive packages. This is unfair to rural Americans since this vital programming isn't carried anywhere else. Please don't let us down.