

60001527874.txt

I watch rfd tv on Direct tv the rural programing is very enjoyable and needed to keep the public informed on where our food and farm products are being produced, which is no longer being taught in our school system especially in our urban areas