

60001527919.txt

I watch RFD TV on Dish Network. I feel that you are doing an injustice to everyone, especially mature viewers if you allow some of the TV carriers to drop RFD and other rural type programming from their programming. The programs that Verizon Fios has dropped in the last year are the very programs that I enjoy watching. The music programs, the sports programs, fishing and hunting programs and the farm machinery and train programs are interesting and cannot be found on other networks.