

60001528853.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Dish TV and have been made aware that there is movement to possibly remove this channel from cable/satellite TV. I support RFD-TV and their coverage of agricultural news and programs, they provide a service that no other channel in north America does, to lose their services and programming would be an unjust blow to our Agriculture community. And their right to broadcast must be preserved.

Thank you!