

60001528953.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Dish Network and have enjoyed its programming for several years. It is my hope that the programming of classic country music programs and the other interesting rural programs will continue. Should they not become available for any reason I will not hesitate to discontinue subscription to Dish Network. It is my hope that RFD-TV will remain important to all channel owners for the sake of the rural listeners/watchers.

Thank you