Dear FCC;

I watch RFD-TV on the Dish Network. I would price shop as many people do BUT only one other provider carries RFD-TV in my area and I am afraid that without intervention, one day I may not have the ability to watch my favorite programming! If the big companies only look at the numbers, we will never win with the hundreds of thousands of "urban dwellers" that don't have an interest in that kind of wholesome programming. Please remember my plea when thinking of RFD-TV!
Thank you, Bill & Ann Rombach
