

60001530436.txt

As an equestrian, I find that the training videos from many professional horse trainers are both educational and entertaining. Many times I will record several on DVR and watch at a later date. I have also found that the RDF agricultural programming is very informative and relevant to today's healthy eating trends. This channel is one of the most family oriented and wholesome I have found. It would be a terrible mistake to eliminate RDF from Time Warner Cable network programming in my opinion.