

60001530655.txt

I watch RFD TV on DISH Satellite television. The programming on RFD TV is informational, educational, and family oriented. I enjoy many of the programs including the equine (horse training) segments, the music segments, and the Family Farming history segments. This is the type of programming we need more of throughout our broadcasting media.