

60001530673.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Verizon FiOS and it is wrong to exclude rural agriculture programming when it is such an essential part of our economy and general well-being. Please do not push these vital programs aside or assume that an entire region doesn't need to be informed because they don't live there. They do because agriculture has been important since before civilization.