

60001530696.txt

Good morning. First, I watch RFD TV on Charter cable. In my opinion, small networks like this contribute to the American culture and enhance the work of the American farmer by providing valuable information, news and programming that is not normally carried by the mainstream media. I urge you, as the gatekeeper of our airwaves to protect such small networks and the programming they provide. Thanks again for all you do and taking time to read this email.