

60001530710.txt

I watch RFDTV every day. It is an important source of information for anyone in the Ag industry and needs to be available for everyone living in rural America.

Independent channels should not have to continually prove their value.

The duty of the FCC is to provide everyone a fair and equitable opportunity to receive the information necessary to run their lives a little easier.

Thank you.