

60001531193.txt

I watch RFD-TV on AT&T uverse everyday. Since I live within city limits, it is the only channel I can watch to get my mind out of the city and into the farm/agricultural/ranching background I grew up experiencing. Removing this channel would be destroying the opportunity for citizens the ability to connect to the backbone of the American culture.