

60001531257.txt

i watch rfDTV and fox news and that's all. I have over 200 channels and these two are the only one worth watching its time the ranching and farming communities are represented for a change as they are the backbone of our country and have always been.