

60001531368.txt

I watch RFD-TV on the Dish network. Please do not drop rural independent channels. It is a joy to watch the rural programs that project the values of most good, gentle country people. Agriculture contributes approximately 6% of the GNP to the US economy, I believe. Country people have the values that this country was founded on. Without independent channels like RFD-TV, the Outdoor Channel, etc. the values that these channels represent will be lost to future generations.