

60001531441.txt

I watch RFD-TV on DirecTV. Then make your personal comment. I watch this channel to stay informed, and learn about farming which I have used in my small garden. The wood working and equipment shows are informative and educational and not shown on any other channels. Losing this channel would be bad, they teach and educate about many things you can not find on other channels. such as cattle, horses and farm equipment. Then there are the cooking shows and music shows.