

60001531969.txt

I support the ARRL's petition.

The previous reallocation has proven to have been too extensive, and the changes outlined in this petition will right that wrong. Currently the CW and digital operations are too compressed and the 80 meter allocation for this use should be expanded. While it is true that CW operations are legal on any frequency in the band, by convention and courtesy to phone operations, CW communications are traditionally not carried out on the frequencies allocated for phone use.