

60001532065.txt

It is very troubling that the cabling companies continue to cancel so many small independent that many provide clean family entertainment so they can provide extra "trash" programming. We went to Dish from cable for that very reason.