

60001532418.txt

I watch RFD-TV through Time Warner, my cable provider. I watch this program constantly. I feel its very interesting for people of all ages. Children can learn a lot from this channel about farm animals, etc, even urban families who have never experienced farm life. I do not want the cable companies to make this a premium channel that I would be charged extra for. If my cable provider cancels this station, I will find another one who has it.