

60001533090.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Direct TV every day, it is the only rural TV on any cable or dish network. I want family and clean entertainment and this program is always family oriented TV. I also want to watch the agricultural information, and news and this program is the only one providing this information.

This program must and should be nation wide, and kept on the cable and Dish type networks.

Patrick Fleming