

60001533337.txt

I believe it important that networks like RFD TV be included as a choice in any cable system. The FCC should not be regulating out networks viewed by many in the country who are interested in rural and farm life. There are an increasing number of networks but sadly not much worth paying for... RFD TV is one reason I have Cable TV.